

The England & Wales Cricket Board Coaches Association

The aim of the ECB CA is to provide an association to support the activity, interests and continuing development of all ECB qualified coaches.

The ECB CA was formerly established on January 1st 2002. The intention is for every active coach to be involved so that the ECB, as the game's governing body in England and Wales, will have a responsibility for training and developing coaches from the moment they start the process of qualification right through their coaching career.
